

Class 10 – The Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ

He is Coming!

He is coming! The one and only Lord, Christ the King
He is coming! My Lord and Savior and peace, again shall reign.

He is coming with armies untold, with a sword and wearing His crown
He is coming, my Lord and Master and every knee shall bow.

He is coming! The Glory of His Return which every eye shall see
This King, my Lord and Savior, in all His majesty.

He is coming! This Savior, who once gave his all.
So we could bear witness to He who loves us all.

He is coming! O glorious day and soon, the trumpet will blare.
He is coming to take His Bride before the evil is laid bare.

He is coming! Oh Lord, my God and I will see his Heavenly face
I will feel his Love surround me, I will fall into that heavenly embrace.

He is coming! The Great I Am and the final trumpet will sound
He is coming to take us home and peace and joy will abound.

He is coming! Are you ready? Have you lifted your heart to Him?
He is coming! Have you given all your troubles to rest in Him?

He is coming! And time is passing, but there's no time left to decide.
He is coming, and all will be revealed. Evil will have no place left to hide.

Give all unto the Lord. Ask for his mercy and His grace.
Ask forgiveness for your sins and accept your heavenly place.

A place that has been reserved for you: a place with your name engraved.
A place that transforms your body and leaves an empty grave.

He is Coming! Oh, let us shout of the joy and the victory
Christ the King is Coming! He is coming for you and me.
